1985 BIOGRAPHY

The 1980s were a blur of neon soaked, dance-inducing, addictive pop tunes and some of the most foot stomping, fist pumping, riff-laden rock of all time. An eclectic era that defined new genres and built on classic sounds that still resonate with huge crowds today. If you want to dance, it's got to be the 80s. If you want to rock out, well that would have to be the 80s too. Enter '1985', a premium events band who can take you all the way, capturing a unique blend of the fun and electricity of 80s pop as well as all the grit and edge of the most awesome rock music of the era.

Walking a seemingly impossible line to capture such a diverse sound means that exceptional musicianship is key. Jay and Mike form the most solid of rhythm sections on thumping drums and driving bass, respectively. Jordan's work on the keys conjures perfect 80s sounds that you just have to move to and when Ron hits the fretboard you know you're listening to a guitarist who can bring all the edge and bite of huge, anthemic 80s riffs. On lead vocals, Mimi cuts a silhouette that is every bit "iconic lead singer" and brings a stunning vocal that straddles genres and somehow captures an entire era.

1985 are a band like no other. They will take a crowd by the scruff of the neck and lead them through the euphoria of brilliant pop and dance tunes all the way through to stadium shaking solos and sing along rock anthems. This is a band that fills the dance floor immediately and keeps it that way. Their musicianship and professionalism set them apart and their ability to capture such a diverse and yet universal sound makes them a rarity on the scene. Such a broad array of tunes and sounds is notoriously difficult to master - 1985 achieve the task with confidence and flair.

In just a short time they've already rocked venues like Mountaineer Casino Racetrack and Resort, Linden Grove Nightclub and many more. This is a band capable of transforming an evening and guiding an audience through the full spectrum of 80s music brilliance! If you've got to get a party started, if you've got a crowd that need moving, an audience that need enthraling, an event that need electrifying, contact 1985 today and plan a night like no other!
